

JEWELS LOST ON TRAIN

Mrs. Buck of Richmond Leaves
Valuables on Pullman.

LOSS AMOUNTS TO ABOUT $15,000

Supposed Victim Left Case Said to Contain Gems of Great Value Under Sleeping Berth Mattress—List of the Articles.

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 5.—For twenty-four hours the police and detective departments of Richmond have been busy notifying other cities and prosecuting a diligent investigation here with regard to a large jewel robbery, alleged to have been committed on the Atlantic Coast Line train leaving Jersey City Thursday evening at 9:44 o'clock for the South, in which Mrs. Sue Williams Buck, of 824 West Franklin street, was victimized.

Jewels Left Under Mattress.

The train bearing Mrs. Buck arrived here yesterday morning at 7:50. Mrs. Buck said that she carried with her her jewel case which, during the night, she deposited under the mattress to her berth, but which she neglected to remove when she left the sleeper on reaching Richmond. Mrs. Buck did not realize her loss until after 12 o'clock. In the meanwhile the train bearing the Pullman had left Richmond. It had gone South six hours before the police of this city were notified.

Forgot Valuable Casket.

A singular feature connected with the supposed robbery is the fact, as vouched for by Chief of Police Louis Werner, that while a case containing $10,000 is said to have been carried by Mrs. Buck in her Pullman berth, the lady entirely forgot the valuable casket and did not remember or think of it, until six hours after leaving the train.

Mrs. Buck says she left the cars at 8 o'clock. She first discovered her loss at 2 o'clock. The police were not notified until 5 o'clock. The train had then left Richmond six hours.

Schedule of Jewels.

A schedule of the missing jewels is given as follows:

- 1 dark blue leather box, with key on top.
- 1 ring, double solitaire, two stones $1,000
- 1 ring, single solitaire, one stone 1,000
- 1 large emerald ring, set with diamonds 400
- 1 ruby and diamond ring 250
- 2 pearl and diamond rings ($200 and $500) 700
- 1 butterfly diamond and pearl pin 600
- 1 diamond and pearl pin 1,200
- 2 diamond sunbursts ($1,000 and $500) 1,500
- 1 double circle diamond pin 500
- 1 diamond heart pin 500
- 1 diamond and pearl pendant 400
- 1 pair diamond earrings 600
- 1 pearl watch with pearl chain, open case 250
- 1 long gold chain, set with different stones 250
- 1 strand pearls, $100, and clasp, $175 275
- 1 gold enamel pin, set around with diamonds, name "S. E. Buck" on back 100
- 1 carbuncle pin, set with diamonds and pearls 200

And other jewels.

A reward of $1,000 has been offered by Mrs. Buck for the arrest and conviction of the thief.

Value Nearer $15,000.

In an interview with a Journal reporter this afternoon Mrs. Buck said that while she had been requested by the police to not say anything for publication concerning the robbery, that it was a fact that the jewels stolen were worth nearer $15,000 than $10,000.

"The list of the stolen jewels given to the police does not cover the entire amount that was contained in my jewel box," said Mrs. Buck. "I figure my loss is about $15,000."

Mrs. Buck, who is a sister of T. C. Williams, the tobaccoist, said that she was accompanied from Jersey City by her daughter, Miss Helen Buck, and her maid. The latter had been with her for twenty years and was perfectly trustworthy and honest. She has not the slightest suspicion as to who committed the theft.

One Arrest Made.

Samuel D. Tucker, a negro, was arrested tonight on the charge of having stolen the bag containing the jewelry.

Tucker is the negro who removed the mattresses from the car on its arrival here, but he denies the theft. The theft was reported to the police station here by Mrs. Buck and her daughter, the latter wearing a fifteen thousand dollar necklace at the time.

FIVE OCEAN VIEW
OFFICERS DISMISSED

Three Saloon Proprietors Called to Court—Outcome of Lanigan's
Charge of Craft.

NORFOLK, VA., Dec. 5.—Five heads of the Ocean View constabulary today fell into the basket and three saloons are to answer to the charge of illegally trafficking in whiskey, as a result of the investigation by Judge B. D. White, of the Norfolk county circuit court, of the charges made by William Lanigan, that he and others, operating saloons and gambling places, paid Chief of the Constabulary, D. P. White, for immunity.

The beheaded officials are: Chief D. P. White, and constables John Watters, A. Kilgore, E. B. Robbins and F. E. Stephenson.

The saloons called to court are the Ocean View hotel, A. E. Gaylord, operating the Cosmopolitan hotel and J. W. Buchanan.

Lanigan's place was recently pulled and he declared it was done after he had paid for immunity.

He turned State's evidence and was pardoned by Governor Swanson. He claimed to have paid $25 per week and W. J. Smith, proprietor of a hotel, testified that he paid White $10 weekly not to be molested on Sundays.

Judge White immediately ordered the entire force at the resort dismissed.

PECULIAR VERDICT
IN MYSTERIOUS CASE

Originally Charged With Criminal Assault, Georgian Punished As for Assault and Battery.

(By the Associated Press.)

THOMASVILLE, GA., Dec. 5.—W. H. Mitchell, alderman and former county treasurer of Thomasville, was today found guilty of the charge of assault and battery on his former ward, Miss Lucille Linton, who was his wife's most intimate friend. The verdict was returned by the jury after an all night session, and was received by the defendant with little show of emotion. His wife, however, who has been with him throughout the trial, is almost prostrated.

Mitchell was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment.

A remarkable feature of the case was that, although the indictment was for attempted criminal assault, nothing in the evidence related to this assault charge.

The entire case centered about a romantic and unsuccessful attempt to kidnap Miss Linton.

Neither side presented evidence to solve the mystery of why Miss Linton, a prominent and wealthy woman, should be the victim of a would-be kidnapper.

RICHMOND REPORTER

Desires to Get at Bottom of Alleged Charges of Unsanitary Baker-ies—Will Probe.

NORFOLK, VA., Dec. 5.—Commonwealth's Attorney Tilton, still without word from Labor Commissioner Doherty in the matter of the charges recently printed in Richmond concerning the Norfolk bakeries, this afternoon received the following telegram from the editor of the News-Leader, the Richmond afternoon paper in which the charges were first printed:

"Richmond, Va., Dec. 5th, 1908.

John G. Tilton,

"Commonwealth's Attorney,

"Norfolk, Va.

"Robert Golden is the name of the reporter who received the information on which articles regarding bakeries was based. If necessary he will go before grand jury and testify who his informant was and exact statements made to him.

"ALFRED B. WILLIAMS,

"Editor The News-Leader"

Mr. Tilton Wants Him.

In reply the Commonwealth's Attorney sent the following:

"A. B. Williams,

"News-Leader,

"Richmond, Va.

"Kindly send Golden here Monday morning. If statements published are true offending baker should be in jail, and if they are untrue an immediate and absolute disclaimer is due from persons making such charges.

JOHN G. TILTON.

"Commonwealth's Attorney."

"If the charges are true," said Mr. Tilton this afternoon, "some one should go to jail. If they are not true there should be a prompt and absolute denial."

Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Tilton said this afternoon that he had heard nothing further from State Labor Commissioner J. B. Doherty, who yesterday summoned to appear at a proposed grand jury investigation here Monday on charges of unwholesomeness brought against Norfolk bakeries through a publication appearing originally in Richmond, but which has since been retracted.

"Unless I hear today, tomorrow or early Monday morning from Mr. Doherty telling me over his own signature that there is nothing in any report that he has affecting a single bakery in this city, I shall expect him to be here for a full grand jury investigation on Monday," said Commonwealth's Attorney Tilton today.

"Personally," said Mr. Tilton, "I don't believe from what I have been able to ascertain that the bakery reports made at Richmond were against any bakery in this city. I think somebody may have gotten an inspection visit to the Norfolk section confused with Norfolk city and thus the report affecting this city, which I am informed has been retracted in its entirety at Richmond.

"However, the people of Norfolk

Danderine

Grows Hair
and we can PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows:
"When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my shoulders and now it is away below my hips."
Another from Newark, N. J.
"I have been using Danderine regularly. When I first started to use it I had very little hair, now I have the most beautiful long and thick hair anyone would want to have."

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00
per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other one preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

Sunday Misfit.

A Sunday suit never fits. Without having any actual experience in the matter we believe from observation that all Sunday suits are ready-made, and that the sole idea dominating the negotiations attending the purchase and sale of such a suit is that it must be tighter and longer than the suits ordinarily worn.—
